F grades received in: _____

Student can apply if they: _____

- A. They are passing four classes
- B. Making positive progress toward graduation

Probation: If granted, the student has until each quarter grades end following the semester of quarter grade that established eligibility to become "fully" eligible. Meaning no probation necessary. Student must have the minimum 2.0 GPA and passing four classes and making positive progress toward graduation. If they meet the requirements they may continue to participate until the next semester/quarter grading period that establishes eligibility. If they do not meet the requirements, they will be declared ineligible until the next eligibility grading period.

Students may use their probation only once in any school year. That includes from previous schools attended that also have probation policies prior to enrolling at Wheatland Union High School.

Students must also attend mandatory tutoring as assigned by their coach.

We understand the policies and restrictions and will abide by the above stipulations and decision of the Wheatland Union High School Administration and Athletic Department.
